Suspected Meth Lab Busted; Two People Charged

Date: July 27, 2011

(Christiansburg, Virginia) – Christiansburg Police busted an alleged methamphetamine lab and two people are facing charges in connection with the case.

Acting on a tip, police served a search warrant at an apartment in the 400 block of Underwood Street on Tuesday night.

Chad Bishop Pattishall, 33, is facing three (3) felony charges, including manufacturing methamphetamine, possession of precursors with intent to manufacture methamphetamine, and unlawful possession of a schedule I or II drug. He is also facing one (1) misdemeanor charge for possession of marijuana.

Shannon Elizabeth Hart, 31, is facing one (1) felony charge of conspiring to manufacture methamphetamine.

Both Pattishall and Hart list the apartment as their permanent address.

They are both currently being held without bond.

The estimated cost to clean up the hazardous materials allegedly found during execution of the search warrant is $1600.

Police are continuing their investigation into the alleged manufacture, use, and distribution of methamphetamine by Mr. Pattishall.
