FOR IMMEDIATE PRESS RELEASE**

Pedestrian Struck By Vehicle

Date: 10/22/2013

(Christiansburg, Virginia) – Christiansburg police are investigating a crash involving a pedestrian and a vehicle.

The incident occurred around 8:00 p.m. Monday on North Franklin Street just north of Arbor Drive.

Two men from Blacksburg were walking along the road when one of them was struck by a vehicle.

The injured man was initially transported to LewisGale Hospital Montgomery and later transferred to Carilion Roanoke Memorial Hospital. His current condition is unknown. His identity is not being released to protect his privacy.

The driver of the vehicle did not stop at the scene but did return a short time later. The preliminary investigation indicates the driver may not have initially realized they struck a person. The driver is cooperating with the investigation and they are not being identified at this time.

The investigation is ongoing.
