Two Arrested in Meth Lab Bust

Date: 12/30/2013

(Christiansburg, Virginia) – The Christiansburg Police Department’s Vice Unit executed a search warrant in the 1800 block of Akers Street on December 27.

While executing the search, investigators located items consistent with the manufacturing of methamphetamine.

John Calvin Price, 30, was arrested and charged with possessing hydrochloric acid and pseudoephedrine with the intent to manufacture methamphetamine, methcathinone or amphetamine; conspiring to manufacture methamphetamine, its salts isomers, or salts of it isomers; manufacturing methamphetamine, its salts, isomers, or salts of its isomers; knowingly or intentionally possessing controlled substance classified in Schedule 2.

Matilda Lynn Henley, 39, was arrested and charged with conspiring to manufacture methamphetamine, its salts, isomers, or salts of its isomers and one count of knowing or intentionally possessing a controlled substance classified in Schedule 1 or 2 not obtained directly from, or pursuant to, a valid prescription or order of a practitioner while acting in the course of a professional practice.

Price is being held on $5,000 bond in the Montgomery County Jail. Henley has been released on $5,000 bond.
