Woman Charged with Manufacturing Methamphetamine

Date: 1/27/2014

(Christiansburg, Virginia) – The Christiansburg Police Department executed a search warrant in the 700 block on Montgomery Street on Sunday, January 26 for possible manufacturing of methamphetamine.

While executing the search, investigators located items consistent with the manufacturing of methamphetamine. A 34-year-old woman was found in the residence.

Rebecca Lynn Jones was charged with possession of a controlled substance, possession of sodium hydroxide muriatic acid with the intent to manufacture methamphetamine and manufacture 227 grams or more of a mixture or substance containing a detectable amount of methamphetamine.

Jones is being held without bond in the Montgomery County Jail.
