Woman Charged with DUI After Driving into Outback Steakhouse

Date: 04/21/2014

(Christiansburg, Virginia) – Christiansburg police responded to an incident Friday evening after a Troutville woman allegedly drove her vehicle into Outback Steakhouse.

Jeannette Craft Jennings, 47, has been charged with driving under the influence (DUI).

Jennings suffered facial lacerations and one employee reported shoulder pain. No other injuries were reported.

A building inspector examined the building for any compromised structural integrity. Finding none, Outback Steakhouse reopened Saturday evening.

The damage to Outback Steakhouse is estimated to be $20,000.
