Christiansburg Police Searching for Robbery Suspect

Date: 05/21/2014

(Christiansburg, Virginia) – The Christiansburg Police Department received a call at approximately 11 p.m. last night regarding a suspected robbery.

A woman reported that she was walking in the 1400 block of Roanoke Street when she was approached by a suspect demanding money. The suspect then attacked the woman, who received minor injuries and was transported to LewisGale Hospital Montgomery, where she was treated and released.

The suspect is described as an African American male between 25-30 years of age, with short black hair. He was wearing a white shirt, black pants and black and white shoes.

If anyone has information about this incident, please contact Lieutenant Randy Bonds with the Christiansburg Police Department at (540) 381-3131.
