Christiansburg motorcyclist killed in wreck

August 24, 2016 – Christiansburg Police responded on Tuesday night to a two-vehicle wreck near the Interstate 81 overpass on Virginia 8.

According to the preliminary investigation, at 7:17 p.m., a 2009 Chrysler sedan made a left turn from the south I-81 Exit 114 off-ramp onto Virginia 8. The sedan collided with a 2002 Harley-Davidson motorcycle that was travelling toward downtown Christiansburg on Virginia 8.

The motorcycle driver, Timothy Harold Roberts, 54, of Christiansburg, was airlifted from the scene but died en route to Carilion Roanoke Memorial Hospital.

The driver of the sedan, Marjorie Kaye Cromer, 64, of Christiansburg, was not injured.

The incident is under investigation, and no charges have been filed at this time.
