NEWS RELEASE

Christiansburg Police Department searching for three missing juveniles

October 5, 2016 – The Christiansburg Police Department received a report on October 3 at 7:15 p.m. in reference to three Christiansburg High School students who had not returned home from school that day.

Jordan Twiggs, 14, Alexis Coward, 14, and Kayla Swortzel, 14, left school after classes were dismissed on a school bus and got off the bus in the area of Swallow Lane in Montgomery County. The parents of the high schoolers told the Christiansburg Police Department the juveniles had talked about living together near a river.

The Christiansburg Police Department has several officers and detectives searching various areas in the County, including locations the juveniles may be familiar with.

Twiggs is described as 5-foot-5 and 130 pounds with brown eyes and sandy hair. Coward is described as 5-foot-5 and 150 pounds with blue eyes and brown hair. Swortzel is described as 5-foot-8 and 200 pounds with brown eyes and brown hair.

Anyone with information is being asked to call Sgt. Randall Womack at the Christiansburg Police Department at (540) 382-3131 or after hours at (540) 382-4343.
